UNION INSURANCE SOCIETY OF CANTON.
The second ordinary meeting of shareholders of the above Company was held at the office, Pedder's Warf, this afternoon—Mr. J. P. Duncanson, in the chair. There were also present—Hon. W. Kewick, Messrs Forbes, Sassoon, and Lemann (directors); Messrs Holland, Pollard, Kresser, Pyke, Rowett, Crichton, Bryans, Hart, Coxon, Bewick, Jakes, Kaye, Burrows, Olmsted, Morgan, Norton, Landstein, Bandilago, and others.

The Chairman read the half-yearly report of the Directors. The credit balance therein shown was stated as, on 31st Dec-ber, to be $395,408.89, besides an additional sum of $950,000 paid-up capital.
Claims paid during the half-year amounted to $72,493.83; and the net premium from 1st January 1869 to date (15th March) were stated at $30,000, being an increase of $30,000 on same period last year. An agency, it was stated, had been established at Saigon.

The report having been read, Mr. Helland remarked that he thought that he had not been treated by the Board with that courtesy which he was entitled to. He had been a tie with Mr. Hitchcock in the election of Directors; and from what Messrs Nissen and Kyrie had said, together with his own impression of the rules, he had expected to see the vacancy in the Directorate filled by his appointment. It seemed to him to be also in opposition to the voice of the shareholders that no appointment had been made. Mr. Forbes had been placed on the board to fill one vacancy; and he (Mr. H.) repeated that it was discourteous in the Board not to fill up the other.

Mr. Pollard observed that he did not see what Mr. Holland's remarks had to do with the report, unless he meant to propose an amendment. It was entirely in the discretion of the Board to fill up vacancies after five in number were appointed; but from the previous constitution of the Society and the wording of the articles, it might perhaps be advisable to have seven members on the board. As for far any right, however, on the part of Mr. Helland to be appointed because he happened to be a tie with some one else before, he had no more right than any one else.

Mr. Holland repeated that the Board, in not carrying out the wish of the shareholders, had cast a slight upon him; and this was the time for such appointment, if such were to be made.

Mr. Pollard said that of course he was speaking only of right; and of that, Mr.
Holland had none whatever. As to courtesy, he (the speaker) would say nothing on that point whatever.

Mr. Kewick remarked that, as a member of the Board, he was compelled to say that he was not at all acquainted with any promise on the part of Messrs Nissen and Kyrie; and he was sure that if any misunderstanding had arisen, it was owing to the fact that nothing whatever was known of any such promise made to Mr. Holland.

After a few desultory remarks, Mr. Pollard suggested an amendment, remarking as he did so that he thought Directors of such Societies were chosen more commonly from their being representative men than from any particular feeling towards the men themselves.

Mr. Holland then moved that the deficiency in the Directorate should be filled up by an election at this meeting, which was seconded by Mr. Bryans, and carried.

The Chairman then proposed that the Report and accounts, as amended, be adopted; which proposition, having been seconded by Mr. Pyke, was unanimously agreed to.

Mr. Rowett proposed, and Mr. Kresser seconded, that Messrs Duncanson and Kewick, retiring directors, be re-elected; which was carried.

Ballot was then proceeded with for the seventh Director, and the larger number were as follows:—Holland, 7; Rowett, 7; and Bryans, 7. Mr. Holland was thereupon declared elected.—Board of Directors now consist of Messrs Duncanson (chairman), Kewick, S. D. Sassoon, Hitchcock, W.
Lemann, W. H. Forbes, and Holland.

Mr. Rowett, seconded by Mr. Holland, proposed that Messrs Hart and Kerr be appointed auditors for the year. Motion carried.

Meeting then separated.

MONTHLY MEETING.
The ordinary monthly meeting of Justices of the Peace, to consider applications for spirit licenses was held to-day. Present:
Mr. Mitchell (presiding) and Dr. Murray.

There were only two applications. That for a transfer of the license for the Continental Hotel, from the former holder, Krisznawitz (who absconded), to Hans J.
T. Muller, was granted. The other application, on the part of John Robertello (the transfer of the Crown and Anchor license from Robert Devins (said to be only a paid actor), was not entertained, as the usual notice had not been forwarded from Devins. Meeting then adjourned till next month.

The following items are from the Strait Times:—

Some little excitement was caused in the Square yesterday afternoon (March 28) by the report that the Chief Commissioner of Police had, owing to depositions received, issued a warrant for the arrest of the party in the firm of Messrs Locke, Hong Ghee and Co., on the charge of their having committed arson by setting fire to their godowns on the night of the 16th ulto. The warrant was executed and the accused taken before the Sitting Magistrate, who, after hearing the depositions, postponed the investigation of the case till Monday next, liberating the defendants upon bail for $10,000 each.

The North-German steam corvette Me-dusa which arrived at Singapore on the 4th instant, from Kiel, was built of oak in the year 1864, at the Royal Dockyard at Dant-zig. She has a complement of 11 officers (including 4 midshipmen) and 170 men.
Her engines are of 200-horse-power, manufactured by Messrs John Penn & Co. of Deptford, and her average speed is from 9 to 10 knots per hour. Her armament consists of six 12 pounders, capable of throwing a 28lb. shot, one 24 pounder Prussian Rifled gun, capable of throwing a 69 lb. cannon shot, and six 36 pounder guns (not rifled), on deck. The following is a list of her officers:—Captain, Struben, Commanders Deinhard, and Von Tronhoff; Lieuts. Menning, Van Pavels, Chuden, Hoffmann and Von Reibnitz; Midshipmen Fischel, Kistner, Rojaly, and Mullenhoff; Chief Engineer Matthiesen.

The Observer says:—The mail which arrived here at the 17th instant, brought official information of the free pardon granted by Her Majesty to Scott, Stewart, and Fitzgibbon, the two first undergoing sentence of penal servitude for life, and the latter for five years; Stewart and Fitzgibbon having been found guilty by the Supreme Court here of having feloniously cast away the schooner Brin on a voyage from Bangkok to Hongkong, and Scott, a merchant of Bangkok, for being an accessory before the fact. An order has been issued for their release. Stewart and Fitzgibbon are in the convict jail here, and if not at liberty already, will probably be so during the day. Scott is at Penang, and will of course be a little longer, though doubtless the order for his discharge goes by the Polio.

The same journal gives the following statement made by the Captain of the United States relative to the collision with the Albatross:—The steamer left Hongkong on March 17. At 10 o'clock that night the man on the look out reported a red light on the port bow. The order was immediately given to port the helm, when it was discovered that the other vessel had starboarded. The United States' engines were stopped and reversed full speed, but not in time to avoid a collision, as a moment afterwards the steamer struck the barge Albatross, doing much damage to her bows and water. The steamer was stopped, and the barge boarded.
Assistance was tendered by the steamer, but Captain Lawson declined the offer, saying he would be able to reach Hongkong in safety. A light breeze prevailed, but the night was very dark. Captain Lawson, of the Albatross, it is said, stated that he starboarded the helm when he saw the steamer's mast-head light and red light.

TO-DAY'S POLICE.
Mr. May on the Bench.

A seaman named Brown, of the *W. H.
Russell*, was brought up at the Charge Room for not having paid his chair-hire, but was induced to settle the matter; whereupon P. C. Turvey went to see Brown safely on board ship. At Pedder's Warf Brown suddenly stole into two of Turvey's teeth, knocked him down and tore his constabulary tunic, the pieces of which were produced in detail.—Poor Brown could not do else than plead that he was the liquor; when he was sentenced to pay $11, or do a month's hard labor.

The Chinese coolies who were found in Taipingshan with a dress coat, &c., for which he could not give a satisfactory account, was up on remand to-day. The sower was found to be a temporary servant in the Sailor's Home, and was stated by the Chinese Steward to have had access to a room of that institution in which clothes were kept. These articles of clothing were kept there by the Superintendent, and handed out to destitute seamen as required; they were forwarded by gentlemen in the Colony for that purpose.—Mr. Richard Rowett having identified one of the coats as one which he had sent to the Home, the guilt of the prisoner became as clear as daylight. Prisoner thereupon pleaded that he took the clothing because he was cold; and his Worship sentenced him to four months' hard labor.

The gambling-house staff charged on the 23th ulto. with having been concerned in the manufacture of forged Bank notes, was brought up on remand.—Mr. Sharp appearing in his defence.—Mr. Cragh, deputy superintendent of Police, applied for a further remand of the prisoner, on the ground that he could not give evidence against him. He had received a letter from B. M.
Vice-Consul at Canton; and he believed that it would not be for the interest of justice that bail should be granted in the matter.—Mr. Sharp objected and asked for bail: the prisoner had been arrested upon a warrant which was informal, in addition to being simply based upon the deed of Inspector Blackwood. The warrant had been granted by Mr. Cragh, and had been addressed to "Daniel Caldwell and to all constables of the said Colony; and Mr.
Caldwell was not a constable at all.—Mr.
Cragh replied that the warrant was never executed, prisoner having been sent up to the Station with a writ from Mr. Caldwell, and having been arrested at the Station.— Mr. May and Mr. Sharp both stated that they presumed the prisoner had been arrested on account of the warrant; but Mr.
Cragh supposed that the arrest was brought about as much by a note from H.
E. the Governor as anything else.—In reply to the Bench, Mr. Caldwell said that he would not have acted upon the warrant at all, as the defendant (being in the same employ as himself) might be said to be more in a friendly relation than otherwise; and as he had received special orders from the Governor, in accordance with which he sent prisoner up to the Station.—Mr. Sharp thereupon suggested that the warrant and information should be laid aside from the case altogether which his Worship agreed to.
But then (his Worship added) there was the further statement of the Deputy Superintendent of Police that he could get additional evidence. That he, as Magistrate, was bound to consider he be granted bail. He would refuse bail, as the case was a very important one, and remand the prisoner till Monday next, when other prisoners would also be brought up on remand, and the cases might be combined.

A Chinese hawk and a Chinese female were charged with the unlawful possession of two blankets, the property of the P. M.
S. Co. The first prisoner was met with a bundle, in which one blanket was found; and on the first prisoner's information, the police were enabled to go to a house in Taipingshan, where the woman was found lying in bed with the other blanket over her person. The marks of the Pacific Mail holes were almost picked out of the blankets; but as they could not pick out the holes made by the stitches, a clerk of the Company identified them as the Com-

SUPREME COURT.

CRIMINAL SESSIONS.

(Before the Chief Justice.)

The Sessions were opened at 10 o'clock; when the following Jurors were called—Messrs H. D. Henderson, Blackhead, Knowles, Volkman, F. Ribeiro, De Brito, and Groschen.

CONSPIRACY.
Yune Awo and Wong Aso were charged with having conspired to falsely accuse a Chinese man of a felony. The Attorney General appeared for the prosecution; and Mr. Whyte, instructed by Mr. Francis, defended the prisoners.

This case arose out of Captain Deane's watch-robbery, which occurred on the night of the 10th or morning of the 11th Feb. and the interest of the case was increased by the fact that one of the prisoners (Yune Awo) was a member of the Police force being Lookong No. 14. The facts are shortly these:—Prisoner Yune Awo was one of the constables on the hunt after the lost watch and chain, and he brought up a man named Chun Aing to the Magistrate, whom he charged with the robbery. The grounds upon which this charge was made were that the prisoner had a brown coat, that he took the watch and chain from his breast and attempted to hand them to his constable, and that his friends menaced him so that he had to threaten them with a sword. This boy (Chun Aing) protested that he was not a thief, but without effect; and the Attorney General, after the boy thus charged had been committed to the Supreme Court, took a view of the case so unfavorable to the looking that he filed an information against him for conspiring, together with the second prisoner, to falsely accuse another person of a felony. The Attorney General spoke of the great improbability of the accused boy having in his possession a gold watch and chain three days after the robbery (the 13th) at well as the unlikely conduct of a long alone braving the menaces of a number of robbers. His theory was that the looking, finding the real robber of the watch and chain, being unable to get the property unless by screening the real robber, had made up a dodge to saddle the guilt upon some one else. Hence the attempt to accuse the innocent boy. The looking, according to the evidence for the prosecution, knocked the boy's hat over his eyes, when a second prisoner slipped the watch and chain into the boy's pocket, and thereupon charged him with robbery. Many in the crowd saw the trick effected, and expressed their disatisfaction at the unfairness of the proceeding. The object of the looking was, (said the A. G.), no doubt, to gain the favor of the Captain Superintendent, by the return of the watch and chain.

Captain Deane, Deed Lee Yun (interpreter at the Magistrate), and Mr. May (first police Magistrate), were examined as to the fact of and particulars relating to the charge made against the boy by the looking. Mr. Deane stated that the second prisoner was arrested at Macao; and that the looking had been of considerable use in detective matters.

Chun Aing, in his evidence, gave a very circumstantial account of the arrest; and this was fully corroborated by the evidence of several hawkers boys who were standing by at the time. Chun Aing had been once in trouble for fighting, and was once "three-sticks" when he was playing at he is known as the "three-stick man," because he plays at that game with boys.

Mr. Whyte, on the prisoner's behalf, contended that there was no evidence whatever of conspiracy; and stated that it seemed to him that the case had been got up by defective named Leong Ayue, because the prisoner belonged to the land police, while he was the employ of the Water Police Inspector.

The Attorney General submitted that he had never heard a word of this detective; and if Ayue had been at the bottom of it all, why did not the defendant's counsel produce this man and place him in the box to contradict the evidence for the prosecution.

His Lordship observed that it was very significant that this witness had not been put into the box. There were no witnesses for the defence whatever.

The Jury returned an unanimous verdict of guilty; and his Lordship reserved his sentence.

The Sessions were then adjourned until Wednesday morning, the 7th, at 10 o'clock.

A New York editor says:—"To be a woman of fashion is one of the easiest things in the world. A late writer thus describes it:—Buy everything you don't want, and pay for nothing you get; smile on all mankind but your husband; neglect your children and nurse lap-dogs; go to church every time you get a new dress."

"What! Mr. Brown a brute! Why, he writes to his wife every week!" "Yes, he writes a parcel of humbug about the agony of absence, but he has never remitted her a shilling. Do you call that kindness?"

"Doctidly, unbecomingly kind."

"The arrangements of nature" are admirable," exclaimed a young lady, during the late high winds. "The same wind which disarranges our dress blows dust into the eyes of the wicked young men who would take advantage of our confusion." Truly, a philosophical young lady that.

LATER TELEGRAMS.

The Glengyle arrived this morning from Calcutta. We are indebted to Cap-Hooper for a file of Calcutta papers, from which we glean the following telegrams.
The first relating to the Irish Church bill, is fuller than the telegram by the English mail. The dates are from London, unless otherwise stated:—

March 2.—In the House of Commons, last night, Mr. Gladstone introduced his bill providing for the disestablishment of the Irish Church.

Mr. Gladstone said that promptitude was fully necessary.

The progress of disestablishment would be by two stages: the first transitory bill 1871. A new Ecclesiastical Commission would be appointed, and the whole of the property of the Church vested in the Commissioners, they making new appointments without vested interests. And that the Irish Church must organize subsequently a representative Government, which must be incorporated and recognized.

The bill will absolutely take effect on the 1st of January, 1871, at which date the separation of the Church from the State will be complete. Ecclesiastical jurisdiction in Ireland will cease; the parage of the bishops will lapse; Ecclesiastical corporations be dissolved; and vested incumbents and permanent curates be entitled to commutable annuities.

The Irish Church will still enjoy all private endowments; and the Maynooth and Presbyterian grants will be erased, and like life interests, wound up as speedily as possible.

The value of the Church property is £16,000,000, of which, after all claims have been satisfied, between seven and eight millions will remain.

The bill proposes to devote this sum to relieve Irish distress (i.e., diminution of poor rates).

March 9.—Mr. Childers has brought forward the Navy Estimates. They show that the expenditure for the present year will be £9,600,000, being a reduction of £1,100,000. It is the intention of the Government to establish flying squadrons, and to build three turret ships, that are to be the most powerful in the world.

Mr. Childers stated that it was intended to reduce the number of vessels in foreign squadrons from eighty to sixty-four.

On the Chinese station there will be twenty-five instead of thirty-four.

On the Indian station there will be in future six vessels instead of seven.

The number on the Australian stations will remain unchanged.

Mr. Childers also stated that it was arranged that the Indian Government should pay the sum of £70,000 annually towards the expenses of vessels maintained in the Indian seas. The estimates have been passed.

The prospect of a direct English, Indian, and Australian submarine Telegraph Company has been issued. The cables are proposed to be laid via Gibraltar, Malta, and Bombay.

It is stated that the proposed Turkish Loan has failed in London.

The latest telegraph advice received from Spain, state that in the Cortes General Prim and Admiral Topete have de-founded the Duke de Montpensier against the Republicans.

Admiral Topete personally prefers the Duke de Montpensier to a Republic.

March 10.—In the House of Commons last night, Mr. Grant Duff, replying to a question asked by Mr. Denison, said that in compliance with a request of the American Government, Sir John Lawrence had given him six lace of rupees, and had announced a further payment of a similar amount; and had also sent him some muskets and ammunition. Mr. Grant Duff also stated that there was no formal condition attached to the gifts, which were intended as a pledge of goodwill, and as an expression of the hope that a strong government was about to be established.

Sir John Lawrence never contemplated a subsidy, and Government considered itself entirely unfettered as to the amount and kind of assistance to be rendered to the Amer.

The death of General Arthur Clifton (General Sir Arthur Clifton) is announced.

March 13.—The Morning Post announces that the Governments of France and Belgium have agreed to refer their differences to a mixed Commission.

March 12.—In the House of Lords last night, the Bill for extending and defining the authority of the Governor General of India was read a second time.

The Duke of Argyll explained that the provisions of the measure were similar to those contained in the Bill introduced into Parliament last year, with the exception of the omission of the clause for erecting the Lieutenant-Governorship of Bengal into a full Government, with a Council, it being considered that any attempt to change the relations between the Lieutenant-Governor and the Council would only increase mutual friction and jealousy, the true remedy for which, however, the Government did not propose at present.

Under the Bill a seat would be given to the Lieutenant-Governor in the Executive Council, as his exclusion involved great waste of time.

In the course of the debate, Lord Powys Lyvedon, Houghton, Salisbury, and Par-dine (7), generally approved of an increase in the executive powers of the Indian Government.

In the House of Commons last night a motion was introduced in favor of a union of the Home Guards with the War Office under one responsible Minister.

The motion was, however, withdrawn after some discussion.

In the course of the discussion, the Right Hon. Mr. Caldwell and Sir J. Pakington declared that both departments were actually under the control of one Minister.

The East India Irrigation Bill was referred to a Select Committee.

The election for Beverley has been annulled.

Mr. Coniff (7) (Conservative) has been elected for Beverley, defeating Major Anson.
The death of Malcolm Lewis, Esq., and Lord Glasgow is announced.

Paris, March 14th. Mr. Laguerre is returning to Brussels with a dispatch explaining the views of the French Government with reference to the Luxembourg Railway question, by which the hitherto commercial question is carried into the domain of diplomacy.

Advises received here from Madrid state that the debate on the Constitution commences next week.
